GENERAL INFORMATION

TO USERS OF THIS CATALOG

As participants in independent study, you become part of both a rich educational tradition and a bold new direction for learning. Since the late 1800's, when the demand for a winter continuation of the Chautauqua Institution's summer activities inspired the correspondence course, countless students have benefited from programs free from the constraints of classroom instruction.

In recent years, as the written word has been supplemented by such forms as records, cassette tapes, laboratory kits and television, and as programs have been designed with an increasing degree of flexibility, the traditional designation of "correspondence instruction" has come to be replaced by the more encompassing term "independent study." The University of North Carolina system embraces this term as an indication of the broadened scope of our offerings and as a symbol of our plans for the future.

While independent study programs encourage a large measure of individual responsibility by students and allow them to work in essentially whatever manner, time and place they choose, it is not the intention of these programs to leave students entirely on their own. On the contrary, the independent student is supported by the resources of the university to the same extent as the student who works on campus. Independent study is an important means by which the university extends its contribution to the larger community; it is with this role in mind that we have chosen to call ourselves Independent Study by Extension.

The learning resources which we seek to make available to the independent student are not limited to any one campus of the University of North Carolina system. With the reorganization of higher education in North Carolina into a consolidated university of sixteen institutions, new areas of cooperation have emerged. One has been the creation of a statewide program of independent study, envisioned as a means of using our resources in the most effective and appropriate ways. This catalog, and the course offerings it contains, represents the joint efforts of six member institutions of the University of North Carolina system: Appalachian State University, East Carolina University, North Carolina State University, the University of North Carolina at Asheville, the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, and the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. The Independent Study program is administered by the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

We hope that the material in this catalog will help you find ways to satisfy your educational needs and interests, and that you will consider Independent Study by Extension a continuing source of assistance in your learning activities.

ELIGIBILITY

Independent Study courses may be taken for credit or non-credit by anyone who is prepared to study them with profit. There are no admissions requirements, and students are enrolled without respect to race, color, sex, national origin, or handicap. Becoming an Independent Study student does not constitute admission to a degree program at any University of North Carolina institution. (Students interested in admission should contact the admissions office of the campus where they wish to earn a degree for information.)

The Independent Study credit courses can be used toward a degree when appropriate to the student's own specific degree requirements. Students are responsible for making sure that courses fit their degree requirements.

Students currently enrolled in a degree program are requested to read the section on taking courses while attending classes on campus before registering for an independent study course.

ENROLLMENT

You may enroll in a course at any time during the year. Application must be made in writing on the forms provided in this catalog and mailed with a check or money order to Independent Study by Extension, University of North Carolina Extension Division, 121 Abernethy Hall, 002 A, Chapel Hill, N.C. 27514. (Make checks or money orders payable to UNC Independent Study.) You should allow two weeks for delivery of your materials.

If you like, you may come directly to our offices (115 Abernethy Hall, UNC-CH campus) to enroll. No office enrollments will be accepted after 4:30 p.m. to allow our accounting office to close out for the day.

When you enroll you will receive a course study guide. In addition, you will need the textbooks and other materials listed after the course description in this catalog. These may be purchased from our bookroom. Specific instructions concerning your assignments and procedures will be included in the study guide; however, you should feel free to write your instructor or this office if you have questions. Please do not hesitate to call on us. As an independent study student, you are an important individual to us, and our goal is your success and satisfaction in learning.

COURSE LOAD

A student may not be enrolled in more than two courses at any one time. Students should check with their own campus to determine how many courses may be taken toward a degree there.

TIME LIMITS

You may enroll and begin work on a course at any time during the year. Your course will expire thirteen months from the date that you enroll. You may submit assignments at your own pace; however, you are encouraged to submit them on a regular basis.

If you are trying to complete your course in a short time, you must submit your assignments regularly. It is the educational responsibility of this institution to provide the teaching component of the independent study learning experience. Thus, we reserve the right to limit the number of assignments a student may submit within a short period of time so that the instructor's regular comments and guidance may be returned for the student's benefit as he or she progresses through the course. Students may not submit so large a number of assignments in so short a time that the teaching component is virtually bypassed. An average minimum completion time for students who are steadily working on a course is two to three months. Creative writing courses usually require a minimum of five months.

If you are meeting a deadline, allow two weeks for your grade to reach the Central Records office of the UNC campus from which your course is offered after you have taken your exam. If you need to have a transcript sent to another institution, allow additional time. It is the student's responsibility to meet all requirements for completing the course prior to his deadline. We suggest that you write your instructor and the Independent Study staff at least six weeks in advance of your planned completion date if you are trying to meet a deadline. Briefly explain your need and list the specific deadline and institution at which your course credit is to be reported.

Your instructor may have pressing time commitments, especially near the end of a semester or a summer session, causing delays in the usual return of graded assignments. During holidays and summers, instructors may be out of town. Students trying to complete a course by a specific deadline should allow extra time in case their instructor is unable to grade their work quickly.

Students who are unable to complete their courses in the allotted thirteen months may obtain one extension of six months by paying a $5.00 renewal fee. In some cases, such as the non-credit Dental Assistant Program, renewal periods will vary according to the course.

CROSS-LISTED COURSES

Where symbols for more than one campus appear, the course is cross-listed. A student wishing to enroll in a cross-listed course should select the course number from the campus from which he/she desires to receive credit. This number should be used on the application. All course work will be graded by an instructor at the selected institution, and the final grade will be kept on file at that institution.

TUITION

Tuition must be paid in full at the time of enrollment. Independent Study accepts Master Charge and Visa. Please complete the appropriate section on the application if you wish to use a charge card. Note that:

1. Tuition is subject to change without notice. It may be necessary to adjust tuition between editions of the Independent Study Catalog.
2. Some courses have special tuition which differs from the schedule below. This tuition will be listed at the end of the course description.
3. Additional charges may be made for special materials and services for a few courses.
4. Partial refunds will be granted if a withdrawal request is received within two months of the enrollment. See the withdrawal section of this catalog for more details.

TUITION

2 semester hour course	$62.00
3 semester hour course	$80.00
4 semester hour course	$97.00

POSTAGE

To cover the cost of postage expended in the delivery of course material and graded assignments, please include the appropriate postage from the chart below with your application and tuition. It is suggested that overseas students include postage for Air Mail, since Surface Mail often takes 2 to 3 months. Include either Air Mail or Surface postage for the total of both your graded assignments and course materials.

DOMESTIC

(First class return of assignments, UPS delivery of course materials)	$6.50

FOREIGN

	Surface Mail	Air Mail
Graded assignments	$7.50	$16.00
Course materials	1.50	16.00
Total	$9.00	$32.00

GRADES

The grading system of the campus offering an independent study course will be used. The following grading systems are currently in effect: UNC-Chapel Hill, Appalachian State, UNC-Greensboro and East Carolina — A, B, C, D, F; NCSU — A, B, C, D, NC (No Credit); UNC-Asheville — H (Honors), G (Good), P (Pass), F (Failure).

Students may elect to take NCSU and UNC-Asheville courses for credit-only. UNC-Chapel Hill courses may be taken pass-fail. Requests for these alternative grading systems must be made at the time of enrollment and cannot be changed at a later date. Individuals should be certain that the credit-only or pass-fail grade will be acceptable in the degree program they are pursuing.

If an instructor finds that the English composition of a student taking a Chapel Hill course is below the campus standard, he may add a composition condition (cc) to the final grade of that student. Credit will not be granted for the course until the cc is removed. A cc may be removed by the completion of English 0 either by correspondence or on the Chapel Hill campus.

Grades for credit courses are recorded at the Central Records office of the campus offering the course. Records for courses taken for non-credit are kept at the Independent Study office.

STANDARDS

Independent Study places upon all enrolling students the responsibility for adhering to a standard of honesty and self-discipline. Students are expected to do their own work in all aspects of their course. Your signature on your application certifies that you agree to maintain this standard.

EXAMINATIONS

A final supervised examination must be passed if credit is to be given. Examinations must be supervised at an accredited college, university, community college, or technical institute which is accessible to the student. Students are asked to sign a pledge when they take examinations certifying that they have neither given nor received aid while taking the exam. All assignments must be submitted for grading prior to taking a course examination.

TEXTBOOKS

A bookstore of over 350 different volumes is maintained for the use of Independent Study students. Books are offered at competitive prices. You may purchase books for your course anywhere you desire, but if you purchase them from us, we will make every effort to mail them promptly. Should you choose to purchase them elsewhere, you should wait until receive your course syllabus to be sure that you buy the correct edition of your texts.

Required texts are listed with each course. PUBLISHER'S PRICES ARE SUBJECT TO CHANGE; thus our prices are subject to change without notice. Used books may be available for some courses. If you wish to purchase used books, indicate this on your application. Send money to cover the price of new books, and if used books are available, we will issue you a refund.

Our bookroom will repurchase texts if they are in good condition and are still in use with our courses. Students wishing to sell their books should contact our bookroom before mailing the books to us to see if they can be repurchased. When returning books, be sure to include your name and current address.

ADDRESS OR NAME CHANGE

If your address or name changes during the time you are enrolled, please send the name and address under which you enrolled, your new name and address, the date, and the course in which you are enrolled to Independent Study. Please use the name and address change form on page 39.

COUNSELING

A staff member of Independent Study is available to counsel any student who chooses to use this service when a need arises. Students having difficulty in or failing a course may want to write Independent Study for assistance. An office appointment can be arranged if it is desired.

Students who are interested in improving their study habits may want to obtain the following publication from the Independent Study bookroom: How to Study, by Thomas F. Staton, $1.00.

REFUNDS

If for any reason you should decide that you must drop your course, complete the form on page 32 of this catalog and mail it to Independent Study. Partial refunds will be granted providing the request is made within TWO MONTHS of the enrollment date. No refunds will be made after this period.

TRANSFERS

A student may transfer from one course to another if the request is made within TWO MONTHS from the enrollment date. The student must pay a fee of $10.00 plus the actual cost of any graded assignments in the course being dropped. New textbooks may be purchased from the Independent Study bookroom. The bookroom will consider repurchase of the texts from the original course at a percentage of their original cost, depending on their condition. Enrollments may not be transferred from one student to another.

COMBINING CAMPUS AND INDEPENDENT STUDY

If you are attending a campus session at any institution, you must have the written approval of your Academic Dean sent to the Independent Study offices for each semester or summer session you are enrolled in order to continue working on your course.

If you do not want to continue with your independent study course while enrolled for residence work, or if you are unable to secure permission, you may let us know each semester or summer session you are in residence, and request that additional time be allowed to complete the course later. If you fail to let us know you are in residence without permission, your course will expire thirteen months from the day you enroll.

You may submit assignments during official school holidays and semester breaks without permission.

CREDIT

Degree Credit — Credits earned through Independent Study may be used toward a degree, providing the course is applicable to the individual student's requirements. Students who are completing a degree program at any institution should check with their academic advisor or dean prior to enrolling in a course to make sure the credits and grades received will be acceptable. Graduate credit may not be earned by Independent Study.

Non-Credit — Those who do not desire or expect credit are permitted to register for any course for which they are qualified. Non-credit students are given the same careful instruction as those who study for credit. No permanent record of the grade will be made.

FINANCIAL AID

1. Student Aid

Loans and a few scholarships (for students with exceptional academic records) may be available to students who have financial need. For information and application blanks, write to the Director of Student Aid at the campus from which you are earning your degree.

2. Vocational Rehabilitation

3. Veterans

All eligible veterans who have completed 181 days or more of active service and who intend to pursue a course by independent study as part of their degree requirements should complete the application in the center of the catalog and THE VETERAN'S STATEMENT on page 38 of the catalog. These forms, accompanied by full payment, should be submitted to Independent Study by Extension, 121 Abernethy Hall 002A, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, N.C. 27514.

Veterans enrolled in a degree program at an institution of higher education may take indepedent study courses concurrently with their residence programs as long as a comparable ratio of completed independent study assignments is maintained. The institution doing the certifying is responsible for maintaining proper records and reporting the veteran's progress in all phases of his course load.

Veterans and active duty service personnel enrolled in one or two courses by independent study only will be reimbursed by the V.A. the cost of tuition and fees in accordance with V.A. Regulation 14136 (B) and (C). A certificate of enrollment will be filed by Independent Study by Extension to the Veterans Administration Regional Office of your state of residence. Reimbursement will be made directly to the veteran by the Veterans Administration. (In those cases where the veteran is taking independent study courses concurrently with a program in residence at an institution of higher education, a copy of the certificate of enrollment will be forwarded to the V.A. advisor of that institution.)

NOTE: If you have any questions relative to your eligibility or the acceptability of the selected course in your overall educational program, please contact the VA Regional Office in your state of residence. (The Dental Assisting Program, Dental Laboratory Technology Program, Dental Radiology Program, Engineer-in-Training course, and the non-credit Real Estate course are not VA approved courses and are not eligible for reimbursement under the VA program.)

ADDITIONAL INDEPENDENT STUDY OPPORTUNITIES

CREDIT BY EXAMINATION

Persons who through prior study or experience have gained knowledge of the content of courses offered in the Independent Study Catalog may be able to earn credit for these courses by passing an examination. Approval of Independent Study and the department involved is necessary for a student to qualify for credit by examination. Interested students should request additional information and application forms from Independent Study. The fee for credit by exam is $25.00.

TUTORIAL INDEPENDENT STUDY

Tutorial Independent Study is a procedure under which students in certain situations may enroll through Independent Study in courses not listed in this catalog. The following statements indicate policies for Tutorial Independent Study at UNC-Chapel Hill and North Carolina State University. For further information on the program at either institution, contact Independent Study by Extension.

UNC-Chapel Hill

For UNC-Chapel Hill undergraduate courses not listed in the Independent Study catalog, it may be possible for interested students to enroll in a tutorial arrangement through Independent Study. If special circumstances warrant, a student and an instructor of a regular University course not available through Independent Study may adapt the course to an Independent Study format. This arrangement is subject to the approval of the department chairman, the Assistant Director of Extension for Independent Study, and the appropriate dean.

North Carolina State University

For students in special circumstances who require a particular undergraduate course which is offered by North Carolina State University and is not available through Independent Study and who cannot make reasonable arrangments to take this course through other means, it may be possible to enroll in the course through Tutorial Independent Study. An instructor of a regular University course may adapt that course to a Tutorial Independent Study format for a particular student provided this arrangement has been approved by the Department Head of the department offering the course and, if the student is working toward graduation, the student's Department Head and School Dean. The arrangement also must be approved by the Assistant Director of Extension for Independent Study. Approval normally will not be given for a student to retake, through Tutorial Independent Study, a course for which that student has received a No Credit grade or a course in which that student has been enrolled for more than fifty percent of the semester.

PASS-FAIL and CREDIT-ONLY

Students may elect to take NCSU and UNC-Asheville courses for credit only. UNC-Chapel Hill courses may be taken pass-fail. Requests for these alternative grading systems must be made at the time of enrollment and cannot be changed at a later date. Individuals should be certain that the credit-only or pass-fail grade will be acceptable in the degree program they are pursuing.

COURSES BY NEWSPAPER

A number of newspaper courses are offered for credit by various campuses of the University of North Carolina system. For information regarding courses currently available, please contact the office of continuing education or extension at the campus of your choice.

TELEVISION COURSES

Independent study courses utilizing educational television programs are occasionally offered throughout the year. Contact Independent Study for further information.
